Overview of the Charter of the United Nations

The Charter of the United Nations is the foundational treaty that established the UN and outlines its purposes, principles, and organizational structure. Signed on June 26, 1945, in San Francisco, the Charter came into effect on October 24, 1945, a date now celebrated annually as United Nations Day. Amendments and Enforcement

Enforcement relies heavily on the collective action of members, especially through the Security Council?s powers.

Understanding the Statute of the International Court of Justice

The Statute of the International Court of Justice (ICJ) is an integral part of the UN Charter, specifically annexed as an essential component of the Charter?s Chapter XIV. The ICJ serves as the principal judicial organ of the United Nations, tasked with settling legal disputes between states and providing advisory opinions on legal questions referred to it by authorized UN organs and agencies.

Legal Basis and Purpose

The ICJ?s Statute provides the legal framework for its operation, setting out its jurisdiction, procedures, and composition. Its primary purpose is to promote international law and ensure its consistent application by resolving disputes that could threaten international peace and security.

Jurisdiction and Types of Cases

The ICJ?s jurisdiction is based on:

- Consent of the parties involved
- Special agreements

- Legal treaties that designate the ICJ as the dispute resolution forum

The Court handles:

- Contentious cases?disputes between states regarding territorial boundaries, sovereignty, diplomatic relations, and other legal issues
- Advisory proceedings?opinions on legal questions submitted by UN organs or specialized agencies

Composition and Appointment of Judges

The ICJ is composed of 15 judges elected for nine-year terms by the General Assembly and Security Council. Judges are chosen based on their expertise in international law and represent diverse legal systems and geographic regions to ensure balanced representation.

Procedural Aspects and Decisions

The Court?s procedures include written pleadings, oral arguments, and deliberations. Decisions are made by majority vote, and while rulings are binding on the parties, enforcement depends on the willingness of states and the broader international community.

Interconnection Between the Charter and the Statute of the UN
