- Arranged Marriages and Endogamy: The practice can sometimes be linked to arranged marriages, where families seek to consolidate alliances or keep property within the family, leading to complex marital arrangements.
- Taboo and Social Norms: Historically, societal norms have regarded sibling marriage, especially involving a sister, as taboo, often associating it with notions of incest or moral decay.

Cultural Variations

Different regions and communities interpret and accept or reject such unions diversely:

- Pakistan and India: Some rural communities have reported cases of sister-in-law marriages, often driven by social or economic factors.
- Bangladesh and Nepal: Certain indigenous groups have documented instances where such arrangements are embedded in local customs.
