The Market for Soccer Memorabilia in 2019-2020

In the late 2010s, soccer experienced a surge in global popularity, driven by major tournaments like the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia and upcoming events such as UEFA Euro 2020. This increased interest extended into merchandising, with calendars, posters, and collectibles becoming highly sought after.

Sellers Pub, a publisher known for producing sports calendars, posters, and collectibles, sought to meet this demand with themed products that combined functionality with visual appeal. The 2020 soccer calendar was positioned as a collector?s item, especially with its extended 16-month format, providing fans with a comprehensive visual celebration of the sport.

Placement in the Market

The calendar was primarily distributed through online retailers, sports stores, and specialty gift shops. Its price point hovered around $10-$15, making it accessible to a broad audience. The extended months appealed particularly to avid fans who wanted a calendar that covered an entire soccer season and beyond.

The visual layout balances aesthetics with functionality, making it suitable for both decorative display and practical date tracking.

Content and Informational Aspects

Calendar Grid and Date Accuracy

Given that the calendar covers September 2019 through December 2020, it had to accurately reflect the changes in dates and account for leap year considerations. The grid was well-laid-out, with clear numerals and sufficient space for notes.

Notably, the calendar included:

- A brief history of soccer?s origins
- Profiles of featured players

While these additions heightened the calendar?s appeal as a collector?s item, some users felt that the informational content was somewhat superficial and could have been expanded for greater educational value.

Durability, Packaging, and Presentation

The calendar was packaged in a sturdy cardboard sleeve with thematic soccer graphics, ensuring protection during shipping. The paper quality was rated as good, with a glossy finish that resisted smudges and glare.

The pre-punched holes allowed for easy wall mounting, and the overall construction was considered durable enough for year-round display.
